How to configure KentixONE for access with a DNS name?

To enable smooth access to a Main device or a satellite by means of an assigned DNS name, an entry for this name is required in the network settings of the device.

First open KentixONE using the IP address.

Add the configured DNS name for the device in the settings Network -> Settings -> Additional allowed addresses. (e.g. alarmmanager.local)