

KentixONE - First Steps Part 1: System structure

This video explains the structure of a Kentix system.

Explained are:

- The functional units such as main, satellites and sensors are introduced.
- Using the example of a SmartAccess StarterSet, the expansion of a system and the addition of further satellites and sensors.
- The selection of the appropriate main unit.