

To download the latest KentixONE software / firmware you need an account. Registration and download is free of charge.

As soon as you use a KentixONE plan, the software updates are also available online. The updates can then be started directly in the KentixONE interface or distributed from the main device in the case of centralized management.

Software Downloads